MUZRAI E

To

Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Department.

SIR,

Restoration of the Management of the Property of Sri Yathiraja Mutt at Melkote, to the Sri Yathiraja Swamigalu.

With reference to G.O.No.1190-92/Muz.204-37-2 dated 25-2-1938, sanctioning the continuance of the management of the property of the Sri Yathiraja Mutt, by Government, for a period of 3 years, I have the honor to state that the sanctioned period of three years will expire by June 1941. The Sri Swamigalu of the Mutt, in his letter dated 15-7-1940 (copy enclosed), requested that the management of the entire properties of the Mutt, which were handed over to the control of Government, by the trustees, might be restored to him. But, as the accounts of the Mutt were under audit and, as the question of taking possession of some other lands of the Mutt was then under correspondence, the matter was deferred for consideration, by June 1941. The Sri Yathiraja Swamigalu, who interviewed me, on 6-11-1940, represented that the landed properties of the Mutt may be restored to him for management, and that the endowment and permanent funds of the Mutt held in investments under Government security may, however, continue, the annual interest thereon being made payable to him.

2. As the Sri Swamigalu is anxious to manage the landed properties, himself, I am in favour of restoring the management of the properties to him, soon after the ensuing harvest season. I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to my ---------- recommendation.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. N. Anandaram
